

Striae Privacy Policy Summary

Last Updated: August 24, 2025

At Striae, your privacy and data security are our top priorities. This summary explains simply how we collect, use, and protect your information when you use Striae.

Who Can Use Striae?

- Striae is free to use but only for people employed by forensic laboratories or forensic-related companies.
- You must be at least 18 years old to use Striae.

What Information We Collect

- Your name, email address, and employment details to verify that you qualify to use Striae.
- Usage data such as device type and how you interact with the Service, only to improve and maintain the application.

How We Use Your Information

- To provide and maintain Striae's service.
- To manage your account and confirm employment eligibility.
- To contact you only for important service updates or security notices.
- To keep Striae secure and running smoothly.

What We Don't Do

- We do not connect to or share information with social media platforms.
- We do not edit, alter, or modify any data you input into Striae. Your data remains exactly as you provide it.
- We do not sell or share your personal information with advertisers or third parties for marketing purposes.
- Striae does not charge subscription fees or collect any payment information.

How We Protect Your Data

- All your data is encrypted and securely stored.
- We use trusted security providers (like Firebase) to protect your account credentials and detect unauthorized access.

- You control any sharing of your reports — for example, you can send your own PDFs to others directly.

Your Privacy Rights

- You can review, update, or delete your personal information by accessing your account or contacting us.
- If you are a California resident, you have additional rights under the CCPA/CPRA, including the right to know what personal information we collect and the right to delete it.

Children's Privacy

- Striae is not intended for anyone under 18 years old, and we do not knowingly collect data from minors.
